Giving our Best

It is now almost a year since I became full time minister at Lliswerry. This year has brought a mixture of excitement and difficulty, but also a sense of God being at work within this community. When we reflect in the encouraging developments within Messy Church for example, and the new people coming into the fellowship, we can see God is at work. The challenge now is to continue with this and look to build on our discipleship.

For all of us there is the opportunity to be involved, whether that be through prayer or however else. An important part of this is giving our best for God. The challenge is to consider where God is in our priorities. Is God our first thought when we wake up and last thought when we go to bed? Giving our best to God is so important for doing his work. We are able to read in 2 Timothy 2:15 - Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth. Here Paul is writing his final letter to his young apprentice Timothy and is giving him all the instructions he needs for continuing the ministry. We are called to give our best for God in order to be the best witness that we can for him. As a church we want people to be able to see something different and inspiring about this place because of the influence of God. Therefore, we all need to be ready to keep growing ourselves and to encourage one another in order for us to be the best witness that we possibly can. Growing as individuals can help with kingdom growth.

God bless,

Chris

One evening, a bird-lover stood in his backyard and hooted like an owl – and an owl called back to him! They had a whole "conversation."

He tried it again the next night, and the next – and the owl always answered. He was fascinated.

Sometime later his wife had a chat with her next door neighbour. "My husband spends his nights ... calling out to owls," she said.

"That's odd," the neighbour replied. "So does my husband."

Just then it dawned on them.
